Oh! what a sneeze is what every body is saying.
Every breeze that sweeps from the north or west brings with it the breath of the snow.
The Las Cruces Thirty Four alternately abuses the soldiers for not whipping the Indians, and counsels the people to arm for their own protection.
Thirty Four has not yet discovered that the cars run to Las Vegas although the editor mounted the cars here a few weeks ago and returning left them here.
Mr. Gillies, of the Clothing firm, of Gardiner & Gillies of this city returned from Glorieta a few days since, where he has been engaged for the last few weeks in establishing a branch clothing store. Mr. Gillies reports good business prospects at Glorieta and is now engaged in sending forward an increased stock of goods. He has also become a thorough convert to the efficiency of advertising and says that while away, he not only read the news items of the DAILY GAZETTE with pleasure, but even devoured the advertisements with avidity and consequently is now, not only a better but a wiser man.
PERSONAL.
Judge Sulzbacher left for the states on last evening's train. His trip will extend to the large seaboard cities on business.
Miss Wood's school is very successful. She now has some thirty pupils and the numbers are steadily increasing.
Hon. Eduardo Martinez of Anton Chico who has been in the city some days attending to the delivery of his wool clip, returned home yesterday.
Mr. Davenport a contractor came up from down the line, having finished up his grade, yesterday. The track-layers pushed close but he finished an hour or so before they got along. He worked a force day and night for some time past.
Don Pedro Valdes and Don Anice to Salazar, a Sapito were among the visitors in town this week.
Jas. D. Wolf, Agent for A. Krille, in buying wool has transferred himself and wife to Santa Fe where he will continue the speculations in this staple. Mr. Krille will personally conduct the business at this point.
Jack Krater, reasonably well known in Las Vegas, and to whom every bridle path between the Little Arkansas River and the Rocky mountains is well known, has recently purchased property in New Placers and is long with a full stock of wet goods will move there.
Mr. Luke McKernan, arrived on yesterday evening's train and is now visiting his brother in this city.
MR. J. W. HANSEN & CO., will continue to carry on the business of shoe and boot making at the old stand formerly occupied by J. Reitz. He also has on hand a fine lot of ready made boots and shoes. All the old patrons of the shop are respectfully requested to continue their patronage south side of the plaza. 2nd door east of Barker's house.

Swindling Contracts.

There is a mail contract to carry mails from Las Vegas to Albuquerque. The government pays for this route; but according to the best information we can obtain it is not carried directly but taken around by Santa Fe. Thus these contractors secure pay for two mail lines while there is but service on one. The department should investigate this matter as this is too old a swindle. A mail line is needed from here to Albuquerque directly. The government pays for it and we should have it.

Mr. Robinson chief engineer returned from the south yesterday.
The track is laid two miles beyond the Pecos and is waiting on the grades. There is little more heavy grade after getting out of the Pecos valley until near Canoncito. A train leaves the depot for the end of the track each morning at 9:30 o'clock and another in the afternoon.
Mr. Brick, at the boarding train reports 250 regular boarders. Mr. B. will do his very best to make it pleasant for visitors.
Mr. Woodruff was down the road inspecting ties yesterday.
The piles of iron rails at the yard appear to be nearly as high as the were when track laying commenced.

Zachariah Chandler.

Dead? In the day of peril;
One of our great men dead.
Leaving his life unfinished;
Leaving his words unsaid?
Hush, till our loss has taught us
Some of our grievous need;
Hush! Let us yield the hour
Unto the hearts that bleed.
Is not a sacred silence
Due to the ev' who weep,
As it were, like Mary watching,
While the earth is wrapped in sleep.
Offer no flowery tribute
Yet, till the stars are born
Into the sky at daybreak
Of the holy Easter morn.
Then shall a word seem fitting,
Making the crown we lay
On the tomb, as grateful dew drop
When the stone is rolled away.—
Inter-Ocean.

Mr. Van Loan, who has been stopping in Las Vegas for several weeks, started to Philadelphia on last night's train. Before starting bought an extra fine lot of wool at Otero, Sellar & Co., and paid 23¢ per pound for it. The highest price ever paid for wool in the Territory of N. M. Hope all the boys will do thusly before making their exit for their eastern homes.

Dr. Robbins, late of Otero and formerly of Kansas City, is established in this morning's paper. The doctor comes well recommended, a physician and a gentleman. We are glad to welcome him among us. He has established himself at the Jewett House for the present until other quarters can be obtained.

We are sorry to learn of the serious illness at Trinidad of Mr. R. C. Richmond, a prominent business man of this city. Mr. Richmond has been quite despondent ever since the death of his estimable wife a few weeks ago and fears are entertained of his recovery.

Things are kept brisk in the immediate vicinity of N. L. Rosenthal's establishment. He carries an unusually large stock of General Merchandise, together with such articles as Scotch Herring and Limburger cheese.

"Cheap for Cash."
